You control your player with the joystick and one attack button

You are 4 characters on your team, with the numbers 1-3 plus the person you are controlling, so to switch between the characters you have to press the button that matches the number. So you have one attack button and three character buttons

Your team consist of gods who each have a special attack. You fight against enemies that comes in waves and gets harder and harder. The waves becomes harder and the gods becomes better

Every time you beat a wave of enemies you get a new god, you can choose to keep or not.You collect coins every time you kill an enemy, and with them you can buy “packs” to unlock new gods that you can collect.

Maybe you have a god that is good at shielding, so you will activate his power, and place him at the front..
If you die, you loose your coins.

The enemies will be monsters that the gods kill to protect the human race.

You will start with one character, maybe thor, and he can cast lightning. And only has to fight 2 monsters so you get to learn the mechanics first.

The longer you get in the game, the harder some monster will be, maybe some are immune to lightning and thor cant beat them, so you have to fight with someone else, so it forces you to fight with all your characters and not just one.

There will be a cooldown period for each attack so you cant spam click, and gods also needs time to rest, so you have to play different gods.

Cool sound effects, there will be both greek and north mythology gods.

The packs will consist of a few gods, you don’t get the gods immediatly when you buy them, you just have a chance to collect them

If you don’t buy pack, then you only have a few gods you can collect and you might end up getting many of the same gods

You can only have 4 gods active, but you can collect up to 10 gods, and have in your backpack so you can switch out your gods each wave, but you might have to delete som gods to get new better ones, so be careful who you choose to get rid of.
25 gods in total.
